Preparing an estate plan is an essential part of life. Regardless of your financial status, having the proper plan ensures that your wishes for the distribution of your assets are carried out and that you and your loved ones are protected during your lifetime and into the future.

Pannone Lopes Devereaux & O'Gara's Florida team of estate and trust and tax attorneys have over 100 years of collective experience helping individuals and families prepare effective estate plans by providing the guidance and legal skills required to protect, manage and distribute your estate in a tax efficient manner.

Bernard A. Jackvony, Of Counsel, a fellow in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and member of its Fiduciary Litigation Committee, and Gene M. Carlino, Partner, a member of the Tax Steering Committee of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, an advocacy group dedicated to the unique needs of the elder population, are located at 2424 N. Federal Highway in Boca Raton, along with Senior Counselors Leah A. Foertsch and Jason S. Palmisano, a Florida Bar-certified lawyer in wills, trusts and estates law. The team has built long-lasting relationships with clients by providing trusted counsel throughout the estate planning and administration process, including revisiting an existing plan when changes occur in life.

From preparing wills, to advising on trusts for estate planning, asset protection, and special needs planning, to finding smart solutions for complex estate planning issues, Pannone Lopes Devereaux & O'Gara's team of experienced estate and trust attorneys have the comprehensive understanding of the full range of estate and trust planning, administration and litigation services that give clients the peace of mind and the results they deserve.
